Classical Guitar Society Membership – for the financial year ending June 30, 2011

Dear Music Lover,

The Classical Guitar Society is an active and skilled non-profit organisation dedicated to the encouragement, expansion, appreciation and performance of music for the classical guitar.

Benefits to members include participation in the Guitar Orchestra, monthly Society meetings, quarterly newsletter, workshops, library facilities and opportunities to perform at a range of venues. Also available to members, at discounted rates, are the Concert Series, masterclasses, workshops and the Guitar Summer School, all staffed by internationally recognised musicians. Discounts offered to members regularly using the Society's services far exceed the membership fee. Membership subscriptions are valid from the 1st of July to the 30th of June of the following year.
